LUXURY RETIREMENT CONDOMINIUMS

Independent Living

Pacific Regent La Jolla offers the ultimate in independent retirement living where you actually own your luxurious condominium. The resident-elected Board of Directors makes decisions on behalf of the Homeowners Association. In addition to the Board of Directors, there are committees made up of volunteer residents who donate their time to make Pacific Regent an extraordinary community.

From charming one-bedroom to spacious three-bedroom suites, you'll find a place that's just right to call your own. With so many options to choose from, you'll enjoy expressing your own style.

An Option for Every Appetite

Enjoy an exquisite dining experience at Pacific Regent La Jolla. Savor delectable meals expertly prepared by our skilled executive chef. Lunch and dinner are graciously served by friendly staff with impeccable attention to detail. Flexibility is important! Take as few as five meals per month or as many as you want. You even have the option of enjoying them either in our elegant dining room or delivered to your suite. Some days you may prefer to cook in the comfort of your own home. The choice is yours. At Pacific Regent La Jolla you'll experience dining as if you were out at one of your favorite restaurants!

Not only does Pacific Regent La Jolla offer gourmet lunches and dinners, we take pride hosting wonderful holiday and themed parties. Enjoy events such as a lovely Mother's Day brunch, BBQ and entertainment on our back patio or a special Italian gourmet dinner. Bring down your favorite wine to complement your dining experience. Our menu touches on a variety of diets including heart healthy choices as well as vegetarian options.
